TO HOLD CONFERENCE ON FUTURES GAMBLING

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Gambling in futures is to form the subject of a conference soon to be held at the white house. President Taft proposes, if possible, to arrive at a means of preventing unnecessary stock market trading in future deliveries of wheat, corn. cotton and other products.

The president has invited a number of officials to confer with him on the subject, among them Secretary Knox. Attorney General Wickersham, Representatives Scott and Lovering (Mass.) and Commissioner of Corporations Herbert Knox Smith.

The stock exchange in New York City and like bodies in other cities have been subjected to a close inquiry by the commissioner of corporations. Incidentally, the government authorities have made inquiries as to gambling in futures as a general proposition, with the result that the decision has been reached that the federal government should deal with this question so far as lies within its power and authority.

SAYS NO DANGER OF WORLD-END CATACLYSM

BOSTON. Dec. 27.—That there is no chance of a cataclysm that will bring about the end of the world through collision of the planets or through other astronomical or geological eruption. was the claim of Professor T. C. Chamberlin of Chicago, retiring president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, at the association's sixty-first convention tonight.

Professor Chamberlin's subject was "A Geologic Forecast of the Future Opportunities of Our Race."

He said increased knowledge of geologic conditions and theories of the Genesis of the world had given the scientific world such confidence in the infinite equilibrium of forces of the universe that no great disaster was considered more than slightly theoretically possible.

President Hawley of the Switchmen's union asserted "Several other members of the Railway council, besides Mr. Perham, left for their headquarters ionight to make preparations for a strike of their respective orders,"

Mr. Perham, in speaking of today's de-elopments, said:

Mr. Perham, in speaking of today's developments, said:

'Friday' we were on the verge of a settlement, and we thought the matter would be fixed up today. But this morning the railroads presented a mysterious change of front and assumed such arrogance that we decided at once to have nothing more to do with them.

'I am leaving tonight for Washington. I have business in Chicago and Cineinnati first, but will arrive at the capital on Thursday. As the intervention of state authorities has falled. I shall seek aid of the United States in putting an end to a controversy that is causing bankruptey and suffering among innocent people who have no voice in the matter.'

Mr. Perham would not state as to which department at Washington he would appeal. He said he may seek to interest the interstate commerce commission and he may take the matter up directly with President Taft.

In the conference between railroads and labor leaders today, railroad officials refused to take back all the switchmen at once, but agreed to re-employ all those they have places for. They gave the switchmen until 12 o'clock Wednesday to accept this offer. The offer was immediately rejected by the labor leaders.

Later in the afternoon Mr. Hawley and Mr. Ferham called on Governor Eberhart and asked him to invite the interstate commerce commission to interced. The governor replied he did not care to act on this request until he had consulted the attorney general, who is out of the city and will not return until to-morrow.

Morrow.

Asked as to how long it would take to call out a general strike if such action is decided upon, Mr. Perham said:

"Some of the orders can be called out immediately. There would be some delay in calling out others because of a difference in the method of procedure in such cases."

After Messrs. Slade and Gruber left the governor's office the federation committee had a conference with the governor, during which they explained more fully their position and made the assertion that it was a fight throughout the country by the American Railway association on the railway organizations embraced in the American Federation of Labor.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, explained the còming conference of leaders of the railroad department of the federation as a step in the general agitation for wage increases all along the line for railroad men.

Secretary Morrison said he believed they would be represented at the conference, or if they are not represented directly they will work in a measure with those organizations which are. BUFFALO, N. Y. Dec. 27.—Failure of negotiations at St. Paul is regarded here as a forerunner of a similar result of the Chicago conference, at which this territory is represented.

"The attitude of the railroad interests at St. Paul," said Grand Vice-President William H. Burt of the Switchmen's Union of North America tonight, "indicates plainly that a basis of settlement in the northwest must be acceptable not only to the northwestern lines, but to all roads included in the General Managers' association. This must inevitably force the men into a similar position."

Dealer Says Housewives Have Power to Regulate the Price of Butter

To the Editor of The Tribune: Butter that is fit to eat—sometimes—has gone to 45 cents a pound. It has been 46. There is no reasonable excuse for lifting the price of butter to this extortionate figure. I heard a dealer, a relail dealer, say today that the prices are raised by the creameries at their own sweet will, and it seemed to him, he said, that whenever a creamery owner ran a little short of money, he merely suggested an increase in the price of butter. Thus, he could easily pay for all his Christmas presents with the added income, and have a lot to spare, besides. This dealer, whose name is not mentioned, because if it were his supply of butter would be cut off instantly, said:

"It seems to me that the matter is in the hands of the housewives themselves. I am firmly convinced that if the women folks would get together and a sign an agreement that they would pay so much for butter and no more—and stick to it, even if they have to eat molasses for a
